DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 2 "the male buckle of a shoulder harness" has no definite antecedent basis.

In claim 9, line 2 "the aperture of the male buckle" has no definite antecedent basis.

Claims 2-8 and 10-14 are indefinite in that they depend from an indefinite base claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.

Art Unit: 3636

2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-14, so far as definite, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hartigan in view of Kooter Lenders .

Hartigan teaches a child restraint removably attachable to the seat of a vehicle comprising a flexible sheet having a rigidifying strip 16b and a pair of attachment means 36 along a first edge, a second edge 16a with a seat belt mating device 26, and adjustment hardware 24, 34, wherein the restraint is attachable to existing seatbelt hardware such as the shoulder harness 28 substantially as claimed except for the attachment means being rings.

Kooter Lenders teaches a ring (carabineer) 10 for use in a seat belt child restraint apparatus to be old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to replace one known attachment mechanism for another, and in particular to replace the hooks of Hartigan with the carabineer as taught to be old by Kooter Lenders thereby providing the obvious advantage and predictable result of a secure connection.

Note that the two seat belt straps, the male buckle and the shoulder belt harness and any components thereof are not a part of a claimed combination, but rather are items of intended use and are not given patentable weight.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-14 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
